New Delhi, the 4th January 1932.

No. F.-33/XXIV/31-Political.—The following Statement by the Governor General in Council is published for general information :—

STATEMENT.

The Government of India desire at the present crisis to place before the public the issues raised by the attitude of Congress and their declared intention to launch a general campaign of civil disobedience. It is the policy of His Majesty's Government and the Government of India to secure, in the framing of a constitution for India, the maximum co-operation and agreement of all parties and interests in England and in India, and it was with this object that the procedure by Conference was adopted. In December 1929 the Congress deliberately rejected this method in favour of the barren road of non-co-operation, and a few months later they initiated the campaign of civil disobedience. The consequent loss of life and property and the damage caused to business and trade, are fresh in the memory of the public. The movement continued until the beginning of March 1931, by which time, owing partly to the measures taken to meet it and partly to the steadily decreasing support of the public, it had ceased to be a cause of anxiety to Government. In the meantime, the Prime Minister had made his declaration of the 19th of January 1931, and the Government of India, with the approval of His Majesty's Government, decided to make a further effort to secure the co-operation of the Congress in bringing to fruition the policy which he had announced. The result was the Delhi Settlement of March 5, 1931. The primary object of that Settlement was to give to Congress the opportunity of participation in the further discussions of the Round Table Conference, and through the anxious months that followed the Government of India kept that purpose steadfastly in view. They and the local Governments scrupulously observed the terms of the Settlement, and spared no effort to surmount the difficulties which the activities of Congress continuously placed in the way of the establishment of peaceful conditions

Some of those difficulties have been described in the statements issued by the Government of the United Provinces, on the 14th December 1931 and by the Chief Commissioner of the North-West Frontier Province on the 24th and 30th of December 1931, but they were not confined to those provinces. They were evident in varying degrees in every province and the Government of India have on record many instances of specific breaches of the Delhi Settlement. It is, however, more to the general trend of Congress policy than to individual cases that they now wish to refer. Within a few days of the Delhi Settlement, two features became manifest, and have since been continuously in evidence. The first was the organised attempt to utilise the Settlement as a means of preparation for a further conflict. The second was the exploitation of the Settlement for the purpose of adding to the prestige of Congress, and of securing for them and its members a position of privilege, not enjoyed by any other organization or by members of the general public. Preparations for a renewal of civil disobedience have been openly carried on. Their excuse has been the assumed futility of the Round Table Conference and the bad faith of British statesmen. Allegations to this effect have continuously been made by the Congress press and by responsible Congress leaders. There has been no disposition to await events or to show a spirit of confidence without which true co-operation was impossible. Behind the screen of distrust so created, the Congress have conducted preparations for a new campaign. They have laid particular stress on the consolidation of their position in rural areas, and in every province they have missed no opportunity to exploit the economic situation for that purpose. They have extended their volunteer organisations, and in the North-West Frontier Province they raised through Abdul Ghaffar Khan (who was recognised by the All-India Congress Committee as the leader of the Congress movement in that province) a very large body of men who were trained in expectation of a struggle with Government. The dangers of this "war mentality" were evident to Government, and Congress could not have been ignorant of them. They were, in fact, brought to the notice of Mr. Gandhi on several occasions, and, in particular, the menace to the Delhi Settlement, involved in the Red Shirt movement in the North-West Frontier Province and the agrarian agitation in the United Provinces, were strongly represented to him. While the Round Table Conference was still in session, a no-rent campaign was started in the United Provinces. A little later, preparations for a conflict in the North-West Frontier Province were so intensified as to create a situation of grave danger, to meet which Government were compelled to abandon the policy of forbearance which they had hitherto pursued.

The exploitation of the Settlement for the purpose of securing to the Congress a privileged position has taken various forms. During the months that followed the Delhi Settlement, the Government of India had persistently to contest claims, the acceptance of which would have involved one or other of the following consequences:—

(a) Fettering their own discretion and that of local Governments in the discharge of their responsibilities for the maintenance of law and order.

(b) Placing members of the Congress who offended against the law in a favourable position in comparison with other members of the public in similar circumstances.

(c) The recognition of Congress as a body whose advice must be accepted in matters relating to land revenue and rent.

(d) Generally, the acceptance of the principle that the Settlement of March 5th, gave to Congress a status which entitled it to more favourable treatment than is accorded by Government to any other association—political or otherwise, and constituted it an intermediary between the Government and the people.

Side by side with this intervention in the administration of the country, the Congress have in various ways interfered with private liberty and the freedom of trade. Under the guise of peaceful persuasion, they have employed the methods of intimidation and coercion to impose on individuals and concerns an intolerable system of tyranny.

2. In their determination to assist towards the peaceful solution of constitutional problems, the Government of India showed deliberate forbearance towards Congress activities. They refrained from denouncing the Delhi Settlement, although justification for such a course was given on many occasions, and they persisted with success in their endeavours to obtain a modus vivendi which would enable Mr. Gandhi to attend the Round Table Conference. In the Statement delivered on the 1st of December last, the Prime Minister renewed the pledges he had given in the previous January. In one direction he made an important advance. He gave an assurance that, with due regard to the necessary requirements of the Frontier, the North-West Frontier Province would be constituted a Governor's Province of the same status as other Governors' Provinces, and he further announced that, pending the introduction of the new constitution in other provinces, necessary steps would be taken, as soon as may be, to apply to the Province the provisions of the present Government of India Act relating to Governors' Provinces This declaration was made with the full support of the Government of India and is an earnest of the good faith with which they have approached and will continue to approach the question of constitutional advance. A few days after the declaration of the Prime Minister, Parliament by an overwhelming majority accepted the policy which the National Government had announced. Among other commitments, was the undertaking to expedite the scheme of constitutional advance, and to this end to set up various Committees to deal with specific aspects of the problem. In pursuance of this pledge, the Committees are now in course of constitution and the representatives of British parties will sail for India on January 15th. The Government of India, on their part, are doing all that is possible to push forward the work. In particular, they are taking steps which, they believe, will secure for the North-West Frontier Province within a few months the present status of a Governor's Province.

3. The position when Mr. Gandhi returned to India was thus briefly as follows. His Majesty's Government and Parliament were committed to a scheme of constitutional reform which had been accepted as reasonable by the great majority of Delegates to the Round Table Conference. They had further given an undertaking that they would make every effort to overcome as quickly as possible the practical difficulties in the way of its immediate realization and, in pursuance of this, they had set up the machinery by which some of those difficulties can be solved. The Government of India were pledged to assist and expedite the work by all means in their power. Mr. Gandhi had given no clear indication of whether he or the Congress, whom he represented, were willing to co-operate in the fulfilment of the scheme of His Majesty's Government. In the meantime, Congress had precipitated a conflict with Government in the United Provinces and in the North-West Frontier Province, and proposals had been initiated to start a campaign elsewhere for the boycott of British goods and institutions. The main issue before Government was whether Congress were prepared or not to co-operate in further constitutional discussions; and it was essential to ascertain their attitude and that of Mr. Gandhi towards this fundamental question. It was plain that there could be no co-operation in any accepted sense of the term so long as activities in the United Provinces and the North-West Frontier Province continued. It was also clear that there could be no co-operation under a continuous menace of the renewal of civil disobedience. The telegram of Mr. Gandhi of the 1st of January and the resolutions of the Working Committee of Congress passed under his advice have left no doubt on this issue. Under the specific threat of a general renewal of civil disobedience the programme of which has been announced the Government of India have been asked to accept conditions which would make Mr. Gandhi the arbiter of measures necessary for the maintenance of law and order, and which would leave Congress free to pursue their subversive activities as seemed fit to them. The measure of the co-operation which Congress would extend in return for the acceptance of these conditions is indicated by the announcement of the Working Committee. They have pronounced the declaration of the Prime Minister to be wholly unsatisfactory and inadequate in terms of the Congress demands, and they have demanded that if their co-operation be accepted, free scope be given to them to prosecute their claim to complete independence. There was clearly no alternative left to the Government of India but to reject these demands, and to take all measures that were necessary to meet the campaign of civil disobedience.

4. Mr. Gandhi has stated as part of his creed that civil disobedience is not only the natural right of the people, especially when they have no effective voice in their own Government, but that it is also an effective substitute for violence or armed rebellion. Experience has proved time and again that in this country civil disobedience cannot be carried on without violence and Mr. Gandhi himself has spoken of the sacrifice of a million lives. The civil disobedience as conceived and as practised by Congress is to paralyse the administration, and to inflict the maximum of harm on Government, regardless of the loss it may entail to private individuals. It is opposed to all constitutional principles and if it achieved its object, it would make any form of Government impossible. In using their full resources against it the Government of India are, therefore, fighting the battle, not only of the present Government, but of the governments of the future. It is particularly incumbent upon them at the present juncture to oppose with their full power a movement which would make constitutional advance impossible. It is their duty to hand over to the new order a working administration, and to this end to resist, with all their might, forces which would create a state of anarchy and chaos. The peaceful progress of India depends on the maintenance of the authority of Government and of respect for the law whatever that Government may be, and the present Government of India would fail lamentably in their obligations to their successors if, during a period of transition, they allowed this fundamental principle to go by default, or were content to permit the usurpation of their functions by any political organization.

An issue of hardly less importance is whether a political organization is to be allowed by lawless means to impose its will on the public, large sections of which deny its authority and oppose its pretensions. Government would fail in their duty were they to countenance the claims of Congress to control and domination, or permit them, in effect, to assume the position of a parallel government.

5. The issues before the country are plain. On the one side there is a body to which has twice been offered an opportunity, without precedent, of assisting towards the political advancement of the country. It has twice rejected the offer and has twice chosen to follow the path of destruction rather than of constructive effort. It is determined to inflict untold harm on the country in the pursuit of a position of domination which whole classes of the people will not accept. It persists in methods which, if successful, would uproot the foundations of all government, and would render impossible any system of orderly administration now and in the future.

On the other side, there is the opportunity of co-operation in the great work of constitutional reform to which His Majesty's Government and Parliament are pledged. The Government of India are equally pledged to press forward the work, and this they will do undeterred by the threats of Congress. While they will take every measure that is necessary for the suppression of a lawless movement and for the protection of public and private liberty, they will also spare no effort to bring to completion the policy of His Majesty's Government.

In this task they appeal for the co-operation of all who have at heart the peace and happiness of the people of India and who, rejecting the methods of revolution, desire to follow to its certain goal the path of constitutional advance.

H. W. EMERSON,
Secretary to the Govt. of India.

KING'S POLICE MEDAL.

(Police)

New Delhi, the 1st January 1932.

No. F. 25/XI/31 Police.—His Majesty the KING, EMPEROR OF INDIA, has been pleased to confer the King's Police Medal, . . . on the following officers and men of the Indian Police establishments :—

Name of officer and rank, statement of services for which in particular the decoration has been conferred.

MADRAS

1. Arthur Reginald Jakeman, Assistant Superintendent of Police, 2 Arumachala Mudaliyar Muttaya Mudaliyar Avargal, Inspector of Police and *3 Desmanukkam Rangaswami Srinivasa Ayyangar, Sub-Inspector of Police.—Throughout the year 1930 daring criminal organizations got completely out of hand and held the south western half of the Tinnevelly district in terror. Robbery, dacoity and burglary went on unchecked, reported crime doubled and the police were practically helpless as the people were terrorized and no man dared to bring them information or to assist them. One large gang was rounded up in 1930 through the exertions of Inspector Muttayya Mudaliyar but two considerable bodies of desperados continued at large. Mr Jakeman took charge of the Cuttalam Subdivision in January 1931. Up to then all the police efforts against these two gangs had proved fruitless. Mr Jakeman tackled the problem at once with vigour, courage and understanding. He was personally indefatigable and in his wanderings in the jungles and uplands, contracted malignant malaria. With the confidence of the villagers gained and the police force heartened, information began to come in, and plans became possible which were laid with a foresight, care and sagacity which in so young an officer were beyond praise.

The gang of the notorious Chinna Kutti Thevan was first attacked. Mr. Jakeman led the first night raid against the gang personally while suffering from fever, and although the leader escaped, his right hand man was captured and the fortunes of the gang received their first serious setback. In a second raid organized by Mr. Jakeman and Mr Muttayya Mudaliyar the gang was finally rounded up and after a pursuit among the hills during which stones and rocks were rolled down upon the police party, Chinna Kutti himself was wounded by gun shot and captured.

Inspector Muttayya Mudaliyar proved an able and untiring lieutenant.

In a serious communal riot in the village of Chintamani in the Tinnevelly district on the 24th March 1931, this officer showed great courage and restraint in retrieving a dangerous situation by resort to gun fire only when he and his few men were in imminent danger of being overwhelmed.

The last gang to be dealt with was the most desperate of the three and the name of its leader Subbiah Thevan will long be remembered with fear in the countryside. He and his gang lurked mainly among the hills with intelligence well organized and for some time the problem of dealing with them baffled the police. Eventually, information came in that Subbiah Thevan was about to visit a certain village. Mr Jakeman disguised as an Indian with Sub Inspector Srinivasa Ayyangar and four subordinates disguised as private persons proceeded to the place and spent the night there. There was no word of Subbiah Thevan's presence in the village but the police party lay low and next day he was seen armed with a rifle and an axe entering a local tea shop. Mr. Jakeman with Sub-Inspector and party immediately proceeded to the place. The bandit was in a small dark interior room which Mr Jakeman and the Sub-Inspector entered gallantly and without hesitation. There was no room for others to enter. Before Subbiah Thevan could sense his ride, the Sub-Inspector had grappled with him and a desperate struggle ensued in which he was eventually shot by Mr. Jakeman with his revolver and captured. His rifle with two spent cartridges and several rounds of unspent ammunition and a sharp-edged axe were found beside him. With the leader captured the breaking up of his followers proved an easy matter.

Sub Inspector Srinivasa Ayyangar displayed great gallantry in grappling with a desperate criminal in a confined space and in darkness.

4. Ambuliur Ezekiel David Frederick, Assistant Superintendent of Police.—This young officer with a party of police under his command was attacked by a large and desperate mob of rioters at Bodinayakkanur on 7th August 1930. Stones and brickbats were rained on the party and their situation was critical. Mr Frederick in constant danger of being rushed and overwhelmed made his dispositions with great coolness and handled his force in face of danger and the situation with a discretion and judgment beyond his years. Eventually the situation developed so that resort to gun fire was unavoidable but the fire was controlled in face of persistent attacks by the mob. Eventually Mr Frederick dispersed the rioters with a minimum of casualties and extricated his force safely. He showed exemplary patience, discretion and courage in a situation of considerable danger.

5. Charles Henry Houghton, Sergeant.—This officer did valuable service during the disturbances due to the Civil Disobedience movement in West Godavari district, which culminated in a serious riot on 24th June 1930 at Ellore. A warrant had been taken out to search the Sitaram, in which the Congress volunteers were lodged and in which the District Congress office was located. On the arrival of the police a crowd armed with lathis rapidly appeared on the scene. This mob swelled in 3,000 and becoming more and more truculent gradually advanced and finally rushed the police party through three lanes. A canal was immediately behind the police party and large crowds were on either flank. Sergeant Houghton with six men guarded one of the three lanes.

A dense crowd invaded this lane and rushed Sergeant Houghton and his small force. Placed unexpectedly in a position of danger and independent responsibility, Sergeant Houghton kept cool and acted with resolution, courage and restraint. As he and his party were in danger of being overwhelmed he fired two rounds of ball after due warning, but as this had no effect he followed up with a volley of six which had the desired effect. The firing was strictly limited to what was necessary to control the situation. But for the presence of mind and determination with which Sergeant Houghton acted, the police force would have been outflanked and overwhelmed by numbers and the results might have been disastrous.

* 6. Narasimhachari Krishnamachari, Sub Inspector of Police.—On 7th July 1930 serious trouble suddenly developed at Gudiyattam, North Arcot district, following the arrest and removal from the place of seven local Congress leaders and a large and excited mob attacked the Taluk Office, Sub-Jail and Treasury. The local Sub Inspector N. Krishnamachari had a force of 14 men, 9 of whom formed the Sub Jail and Treasury guard to deal with the situation. A police head constable who was standing at the Taluk Office gate first came in for the attentions of the rioters. He was surrounded and beaten and his life was in danger when the Sub-Inspector led a charge into the heart of the mob and rescued him. The mob then gave way before lathi charges but collected again in larger numbers behind the Taluk Office building. All attempts by the Taluk Magistrate to pacify the rioters were unavailing. A fusilade of stones rained upon the small police force facing them. The mob was swelling and rapidly growing more aggressive and excited. Further lathi charges by so small a force were out of the question but fire was withheld until the situation had grown critical, and some 200 rioters bent on mischief had begun to scale the Taluk Office wall. Finally taking orders from the Magistrate, six rounds in all had to be fired before the mob dispersed. One rioter was killed. In a critical and dangerous situation the Sub-Inspector kept his head. His steadiness and coolness were an example to his small force. He showed excellent discretion in deferring the moment for resort to firearms as long as possible and his fire was well controlled.

* 7. Quadir Muhiuddin, Head Constable and * 8. Vijayan Servai, Constable.—On 23rd December 1930 when head constable Quadir Muhiuddin, constable Vijayan Servai and two other unarmed constables were in the Police Outpost at Tiruchuli, Ramnad district, long smouldering local communal enmity between the Pallars and Vellalas suddenly came to a head. A mob of Pallars swelling every moment was marauding on the Vellala quarter while the Vellalas were massacing to defend themselves. Both parties were armed with sticks and stones and spears. The head constable marshalled his small force, police constable Vijayan Servai being armed with the only available carbine and the others unarmed and succeeded in forcing his way through the crowds, and before the clash occurred boldly interposing himself and his few men, between the rival parties. On their way they were pelted with stones and when the only reply to the head constable's order to disperse was a revival of stone throwing, the head constable ordered police constable Vijayan Servai to fire two rounds of buckshot at the Pallars, the aggressors. He then ordered his small force to advance against the Pallars and gaining the moral ascendancy by his determined action drove them before him, slowly at first, but in the end in rout. Five times during the advance he halted to order well-judged fire from his single carbine. The resolution, coolness and pluck of the small police party thrown on their own resources in a situation of extreme danger and responsibility were beyond praise.

* 9 Challa Andayya, Constable.—During the intense campaign of Civil Disobedience in the Guntur district last year, this police constable continuously rendered outstanding service moving in plain clothes among disloyal inhabitants and bringing information which enabled Congress activities to be foreseen and circumvented.

On 8th June 1930 at Kanavadi while a batch of Civil Disobedience prisoners was being escorted by Armed Reserve Police by bus and the bus was about to negotiate a difficult river crossing, a large and riotous mob armed with sticks suddenly emerged from the village on the flank of the escort. While the armed escort was dealing with this mob, a party of about sixty rioters evaded them and made for the bus with the intention of rescuing the prisoners. Police constable Challa Andayya on his own initiative picked up his lathi and attacked this mob single-handed and succeeded in keeping it at bay for a short time until the armed police returned and saved the situation. But for his plucky action, the prisoners would undoubtedly have been rescued and a serious reverse to authority would have occurred.

N.B.—The awards in the case of officers marked with an asterisk are for conspicuous gallantry falling under Regulation 8 (c) of the Regulations governing the grant of the King's Police Medal and will consequently carry the allowances sanctioned in the Home Department letter No. F.-28/IV/28-Police, dated the 7th February 1930.

3 (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, the power to make rules requiring deduction to be made subject to the provisions of these rules, from the pay or leave salary of any Government servant (not being a member of a Railway service or a Government servant the determination of whose conditions of service is reserved to the Secretary of State in Council) is hereby delegated to the Local Government of every Governor's province in respect of Government servants under the administrative control of such Government and to the Governor General in Council in respect of other Government servants.

(2) No rule made under the power conferred by sub rule (1) shall—

(a) operate save with reference to—

(i) pay for duty performed after 30th November 1931 and before 1st April 1933, and

(2) The amount representing a proportion of his pay which a Government servant is required or permitted to subscribe to any Government provident or contributory provident fund under the rules governing the fund shall be calculated, as the Government servant may in any month elect, either on his pay or his reduced pay, and intimation by the Government servant in his pay or leave salary bill shall be sufficient notice of his election.

(3) The amount of any contribution or gratuity calculated with reference to a Government servant's pay which Government are required or permitted to pay to his credit under the rules of any contributory provident fund shall be calculated with reference to the Government servant's pay and not to his reduced pay.

7. Any rules made by a Government in exercise of power delegated under these rules may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, be relaxed in individual cases in which that Government is satisfied that a strict application of the rule would cause exceptional hardship to the individual concerned, but no such relaxation shall be made without the concurrence in writing of the Governor, or the Governor General as the case may be.

NOTIFICATION.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES APPEARING FOR THE EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD IN 1932.

Candidates for University Examinations are required to observe the following instructions very carefully :—

1. Strict silence should be maintained in the examination room.

2. Candidates should take their places in the examination hall at least five minutes before the time fixed for giving out the papers. Candidates presenting themselves more than half an hour after the appointed time will not be admitted to the hall. Candidates who are suffering from infectious diseases of any kind will not be admitted.

Candidates should bring with them to the examination hall each day of the examination their hall tickets for inspection by the Chief Superintendent.

3. Candidates are prohibited from writing upon their hall tickets or question papers. Candidates are also prohibited from writing their names on any part of the answer books; their register numbers should be written very distinctly on the outer cover of each paper. Failure to write their register numbers may involve the rejection of answer papers.

4. Candidates are not allowed to exceed the time assigned to each paper.

5. No candidate will be allowed to leave the examination room till the expiry of at least half an hour after a question paper has been given out; and no candidate who leaves the room during the period allotted for a paper will be allowed to return within that period.

6. Candidates are forbidden to ask questions of any kind during the examination. They are further forbidden to communicate with the examiners; should they do so, their answers will not be valued, and their conduct will be reported to the Vice-Chancellor for disciplinary action.

7. CANDIDATES ARE NOT ALLOWED THE USE OF BOOKS OF ANY KIND (EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN RULES). THEY ARE ALSO PROHIBITED FROM INTRODUCING INTO THE EXAMINATION ROOM ANY BOOK OR PORTION OF A BOOK, SLATE, MANUSCRIPT, OR PAPER OF ANY DESCRIPTION, FROM COMMUNICATING WITH ANY PERSON OUTSIDE THE EXAMINATION ROOM. ANY CANDIDATE DETECTED IN THE VIOLATION OF THESE RULES WILL BE SENT OUT OF THE ROOM FORTHWITH, AND HIS CONDUCT WILL BE REPORTED TO THE VICE-CHANCELLOR.

The use of stencils at University examinations is not permitted except to students answering papers in Mathematics and Physics. The use of the mathematical instruments whilst answering papers in Mathematics and in Physical Science will be allowed. Such instruments will not be supplied by the University.

8. Clarke's Mathematical and Physical Tables will be supplied to candidates answering papers in Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry at the Intermediate, B.A. Pass and Honours Examinations.

An 'earnest' fee of an amount equivalent to the cost of a copy of mathematical tables should be deposited with the Chief Superintendent by each student requiring the use of such books, the amount to be refunded on the books being returned. The cost price of each book is nine annas.

9. Candidates for the B.A. Degree Examination under groups (a) and (b) are required to submit their laboratory note-books both in the main and subsidiary subjects to the examiners concerned on the first day of the Practical Examination.

10. Candidates are required to provide themselves with their own pens. Candidates may bring into the examination hall their own ink bottles. They must, however, use only black ink while answering their question papers.

11. Particular attention is directed to the instruction regarding rough working and loose sheets of paper printed on the answer books. No separate books for rough working will be supplied to candidates. Paper must not be detached from the answer books of candidates. If the ordinary answer books are found insufficient, additional books will be allowed and these should be securely fastened to the answer books.

12. AS SOON AS CANDIDATES HAVE FINISHED WRITING THEIR ANSWERS AND WISH TO GIVE UP THEIR ANSWER BOOKS, OR AT THE END OF THE PERIOD PRESCRIBED FOR EACH PARTICULAR PART OF THE EXAMINATION, EACH SHOULD STAND UP IN HIS PLACE AND REMAIN STANDING UNTIL ONE OF THE SUPERINTENDENTS HAS GONE TO HIM AND HAS RECEIVED HIS ANSWER BOOK FROM HIM.

Where halls are suitable the following alternative procedure may be adopted:—At the end of the period prescribed for each particular part of the examination the candidate should at once fold his answer book, leave it in evidence at his place, vacate his seat, retire to the passages between the tables and move out of the hall in order and in silence, the superintendents being meanwhile stationed in positions from which they may command a good view of the blocks entrusted to the care; when all the candidates have moved out, the superintendents will collect the answer books.

13 Communications to the Registrar from candidates requesting information relating to the results of the examinations will not receive attention until after the publication of the results in the Fort St. George Gazette.

14. The hall tickets of candidates sitting for the examinations will be ready for distribution at the University office three days before the date of each examination.

3. No person will be allowed to bid at the auction, unless he furnishes an earnest money deposit of Rs 1,000 (one thousand) at the time of sale in each depot and unless he signs his name in the sale notice to imply his acceptance of the conditions contained in that notice. No person will be allowed to deposit and bid jointly at the sale. The deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them at the conclusion of the sale.

4. The sales will be subject to confirmation by the Conservator of Forests, IV Circle, Salem, who does not bind himself to accept the highest or any bid.

5. Each purchaser shall, immediately after a lot is knocked down to him, sign his name at the foot of the sale list in the column provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as an admission on his part of having bought the lot.

6. The highest bidders, after the sale, shall furnish in writing their correct postal addresses.

7. Immediately after the sale, each purchaser whose offer has been accepted by the Conservator of Forests, IV Circle, will be furnished with a memorandum showing the total amount due by him. He shall remit 50 per cent of the amount into any one of the Government Treasuries at Vellore or Tirupattur or into the Imperial Bank of India, Madras or Vellore, payable to the Accountant-General, Madras, within eight days of the date of confirmation of the sale and the balance less the earnest money deposit referred to in paragraph three above, before 25th March 1932 or before removal from the depot premises of the sandalwood purchased, whichever is earlier.

In every such remittance, the highest bidder shall clearly specify in the chalan or receipt, that the amount has been paid by a specified person on behalf of himself (the highest bidder) being the purchase amount of sandalwood at the Vellore or Tirupattur depot as the case may be.

8. Should any purchaser fail to make the requisite payment on the due dates, the sandalwood purchased by him is liable to be resold at his risk, the earnest money deposit made by him forfeited to Government, and any loss accruing by such resale recovered from him, as if it were arrears of land revenue. Should, however any profit arise by such resale, the defaulter shall not be entitled to it.

9. The purchaser will be allowed a reasonable time to remove the wood he has paid for and this will be fixed by the District Forest Officer, with regard to the quantity purchased, but will in no case extend beyond the 30th April 1932, after which date demurrage on wood paid for will be charged at Rs. 10 per diem and a lien will be retained on the wood till such charge is paid. The wood will be at the purchaser's risk from the date of weighment.

10. The accepted bidders when deputing their agents to take delivery must furnish each agent with a power of attorney duly stamped and bearing the signature of the person so deputed. A copy of the power of attorney must also be sent to the District Forest Officer by post with four specimen signatures of the agent. Failing this, delivery may be refused pending verification, in which case the delay will count against the accepted bidder.

11. On presentation of the chalan to the Officer in charge of the depot for payment of the value of the sandalwood purchased by each merchant, the wood will be weighed, as it is, in the depot in the presence of the purchaser or his accredited agent, by an Officer of the department not lower in rank than a Forest Ranger. No further cleaning or classification of the sandalwood will be undertaken by the Forest department nor will purchasers be allowed to clean any wood previous to weighment. The classification, cleaning and weighment as determined by the Forest department must be accepted. Should any excess over the quantity paid for be found in the quantity purchased when weighing at the time of delivery, the excess will be paid for by the purchaser at the rate at which it was originally purchased before effecting removal. If any one purchaser has purchased more than one lot or class and if there is any excess in one lot or class and deficit in the other, when weighing at the time of delivery on a particular day, the value of the deficit noticed calculated on the rate at which the main lot or class was sold will be adjusted towards the value of the excess quantity noticed in the other lot or class as the case may be, and the balance, if any, still due from the purchaser will be collected before permitting him to remove the quantity delivered during the day. If however, the net quantity delivered results in a deficit on account of drugs over the recorded quantity at the time of sale, the value of the deficit quantity at the purchased rate will be refunded in due course.

12. The purchaser shall bear the cost of weighment at the time of delivery.

13. No purchaser may remove any wood until he has paid for the full quantity purchased.

14. No sandalwood can be removed from the depot till a licence to remove sandalwood signed by the Officer of the Forest Department who weighed the wood, shall have been obtained and till every piece of sandalwood that can be stamped has been stamped with the District sale hammer.

15. The Officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to stop the sale at any time so to prevent any person from bidding without assigning any reason for his action.

16. Each intending bidder unless specially exempted by the Conservator of Forests, IV Circle, Salem, on application made in writing at least fifteen days before the date of sale, must produce a solvency certificate signed by a responsible Revenue Officer of the district in which he resides; and the District Forest Officer holding the sale may refuse to allow, any bidder not so exempted, to bid beyond the amount guaranteed in such certificate.

17. Any supplementary conditions that may be found necessary will be read out at the time of auction.

18. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

G. VENUGOPAL,
District Forest Officer.

N.B.—As the auction proceeds, each person whose bid is provisionally accepted shall at once make a further deposit of half a month's rent (in addition to the initial deposit of Rs. 50) for each shop unless the initial deposit equals or exceeds two months' rent. Should he fail to do so, the initial deposit made by him will be forfeited and the shop will be put up again immediately or otherwise disposed of by the Collector and the defaulter will be debarred from bidding again for the same or for any other shop. The resale will be at the risk of the defaulter who will forfeit all gain and in the event of a loss, will be required to make good the deficiency between the total amount payable for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the resale

2. Successful bidders will be allowed to open their shops only in unobjectionable sites within the limits specified above and at a distance of not less than 100 yards from one another.

3. (a) Every person whose bid is provisionally accepted shall

(i) at once, if so required by the selling officer or otherwise at the close of the day's sale, deposit in addition to the deposits made under clause 1 half a month's rent for each shop knocked down to him unless the initial deposit equals or exceeds two months' rent;

(ii) at once apply in writing for a licence for each shop knocked down to him and within a week, from the date of sale, furnish the Inspector of Excise, Madras Town Circle, within the boundaries of the site selected by him for the location of the shop and the Collector with a statement in the prescribed form to be obtained at the Collector's office showing details of the immovable property possessed by him, or in which he has an interest, together with accurate and full details of encumbrances, etc., thereon;

(iii) within fifteen days from the date of sale deposit such further sum as with the deposits already made under sub-clause (i) supra will make up two months' rent of all shops knocked down on him

(b) Further if the Collector is not satisfied that any such person can be trusted to pay his rent punctually and fully, he may require him, in addition to the deposits required under clause (a) (iii) supra either

(i) to deposit two months' rent of all shops knocked down to him, or

(ii) to execute a mortgage of his immovable property in favour of the Government for all moneys that may become due under the terms of the contract with a power of sale in favour of the mortgagee to be exercised in default of payment thereof by the purchaser, or

(iii) to produce a surety or sureties, to be accepted by the Collector, who should execute a security bond for the due payment of all moneys that may become due by him under the terms of the contract and to execute a mortgage deed of his or their immovable property in favour of the Government for the payment of all moneys due under the said contract by the purchaser, with a power of sale in favour of the mortgagee in default of payment thereof, by the surety or sureties or by the purchaser, or

(iv) if the Collector is not satisfied that the value of his immovable property tendered as security is adequate, he may require such person further to produce, in addition to mortgaging his property, a surety or sureties to be approved by the Collector who shall execute a security bond for the balance of the money that may become due and execute a mortgage deed of the surety or sureties' property in favour of the Government. The sureties referred to in sub-clauses (ii) and (iv) should submit to the Collector a statement in the prescribed form annexed to this notification showing details of their immovable property. The purchaser shall be bound to carry out the provisions of sub-clauses (i) to (iv) above, within fifteen days from the date of sale.

The bond and the mortgage deeds shall be stamped and registered at the expense of the purchaser. He shall also be bound to execute a counterpart agreement.

(c) On the failure of any person to make a deposit or apply for a licence under clause 3 (a) above or to comply with any requisition or to execute any engagement under clause 3 (b) above, the deposits already made may be forfeited and the shop may be resold or otherwise disposed of by the Collector. Resales under this condition will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain and, in the event of a loss, will be required to make good the deficiency between the total amount payable for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the resale. In the latter case, the forfeited deposits will be deducted from the loss arising from the resale, and the remainder, if any, will be recoverable in the same manner as if it were an arrear of land revenue. Should, however, the forfeited deposits be greater than the loss by resale, the whole of such deposits will be credited to Government. The defaulting bidder will be similarly liable if the shop is disposed of otherwise than by resale and such disposal results in loss to Government as compared with the original sale. Disposal otherwise than by resale includes closure.

4. Temporary licence will not be issued except in special cases and in no case where the issue of the permanent licence is delayed through the failure of the licensee to comply with the conditions set forth above and as the annual notification of the Commissioner of Excise.

The Standard Barometer and Thermometers are read at 8 a.m., 10 a.m., 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The cistern of the barometer is twenty-two feet above the level of the sea, and the receiver of the rain-gauge is two feet from the ground. The wind, rain and general weather registered are for the current civil day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of rain collected since 1st January is Nil inches, the average due for the same period being 0·27 inches.
